

To whom it may concern

The NEF has entered into a partnership with the Solidarity Fund to assist businesses affected by the recent civil unrest that took place in Gauteng and KwaZulu Natal in July 2021. The Solidarity Fund is considering contributing additional resources towards this initiative by providing support to businesses linked to your establishment such as the informal traders and Small Micro and Medium Enterprises. As such the NEF has been requested to collect information on behalf of the Solidarity Fund in order to assess the extent of the impact of the unrest and the interventions required to rebuild.

Please assist us by providing the following information required to provide non repayable grant vouchers to your employees through the Solidarity Fund Humanitarian Food distribution initiative.

- Employee list containing names & surnames, ID numbers and cellphone numbers
- Anticipated Rebuild Period

The Following NEF employees have been authorised to directly request information from all affected parties. Please forward the required information to the contact details indicated below.

- Ms Nyameka Mandonda :mandondan@nefcorp.co.za
- Ms Nokuthula Fakude: fakuden@nefcorp.co.za

To the extent that any of the information collected by the NEF as set out in this letter constitutes personal information in terms of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 2013 (POPIA), the NEF undertakes to comply with the provisions of POPIA in the processing of such information.

We look forward to your timeous response.

Yours sincerely
